Erik Odelberg

Partner

Erik specialises in dispute resolution and advises clients in complex arbitration and litigation, including disputes relating to construction, professional liability, M&A, board and executive liability, shareholder agreements and insolvency.

He also has substantial experience in reviewing and negotiating commercial agreements, particularly for companies operating in regulated financial environments.

Prior to joining Schjødt in 2021, Erik worked as legal counsel at a Swedish credit market company, where he advised on dispute resolution, asset-based lending and a broad range of commercial contracts. His work included contract reviews relating to financial services, IT procurement and technology-driven business collaborations, often in contexts involving heightened regulatory and risk considerations.
