Henrik Juul Hansen

Partner

Henrik is one of the most experienced and active legal advisors in the Danish M&A market and is widely recognised for his ability to deliver results, even in the most complex transactions. He combines legal precision with a clear business focus and is known for his ability to cut through complex issues and find practical solutions that drive processes forward.

Henrik has spearheaded a wide range of high-profile M&A transactions in recent decades representing private equity, industrial players, family-owned businesses, and family offices in their strategically important transactions. He also has considerable experience in planning and successfully executing sales processes where decades of experience, commercial acumen and pragmatic perspective ensure the best possible results.

Henrik is a member of the boards of directors of several companies and acts as day-to-day legal and strategic advisor not only on specific transactions, but also on investments, shareholder structures, acquisition financing structures, management incentives and commercial contracts and legal structures that shape companies' development and address legal risk management and compliance.
