Alexander With Partner

Alexander is a partner in the tax practice group. He works within all fields of indirect taxes and furthermore broadly within real estate development. Within indirect tax, his expertise covers both domestic and international indirect VAT, customs and excise duties, and all manner of advisory, transactional and dispute resolution indirect tax assistance.

Within real estate development, Alexander, inter alia, covers zoning, development agreements, structuring, financing, etc, in particular in relation to social housing. Alexander regularly undertakes assignments as a lecturer in indirect tax. Among other things, he lectures on master's programmes in tax law. He also assists with the development of regulations, both on behalf of the government and on behalf of the business sector.

Alexander joined Schjødt in 2026.
