Andreas A. Johansen

Partner

Andreas is partner in Schjødt's Dispute Resolution department. His primary focus is disputes in commercial contracts, with an expertise in contract law and related areas. He frequently represents clients in large and complex disputes before both ordinary courts and arbitration – and in negotiations to avoid such disputes.

His extensive experience includes matters and disputes within areas of work such as post M&A, shipping, shipbuilding, E&P oil and gas, onshore and offshore construction, insurance and fishery/aquaculture.

Andreas has been engaged as a speaker and is co-author to a book concerning onshore and offshore construction.

He is a graduate of the Faculty of Law of the University in Tromsø, where he graduated in 2013. He has been a lawyer in Schjødt since then, except for a period seconded as Legal Counsel for a leading company within the oil, gas and renewable energy sectors.
