Ingrid Austjore Valseth

Associate

Ingrid works in Schjødt's Financial Services department. She joined Schjødt in 2023 after finishing her Master of Laws at the University of Bergen. She also has a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Agder.

During her studies, Ingrid had traineeships both nationally and internationally, and provided free legal aid to vulnerable groups in the local community through several non-profit organisations. While writing her master thesis, she also worked as a legal advisor in the Norwegian Communications Authority with responsibilities connected to international relations and regulatory affairs, especially regarding environmental sustainability.

Ingrid wrote her master thesis on the abuse of dominant position in the telecommunications market, and took elective courses related to EU/EEA Law and Mediation.
