Caroline Bruyant Bonde

Partner

Caroline is a partner in our Finance practice group. She acts for Scandinavian and international banks, financial institutions, private equity sponsors, credit funds, and corporate borrowers advising on asset financing, project financing, acquisition financing, and corporate financing. Her work includes structuring of loan transactions, drafting and negotiating contracts, including loan and security documentation, for bilateral as well as syndicated financings.

Caroline also advises asset managers and financial institutions on financial regulation and fund formation. She has extensive experience with alternative investments, including due diligence and negotiation of investment terms in private equity, credit, infrastructure, real estate, venture capital, and fund-of-funds.

In addition to her work with financing, Caroline focuses on shipping and energy transactions and regularly advises the various parties to such transactions, including shipowners, industrials, brokers, banks and other financial institutions.

Caroline is a dual-qualified lawyer in Denmark and England & Wales. She joined Schjødt in 2022 having previously worked in the alternative investments teams in Danske Bank and Danica Pension and a number of years in London for Reed Smith with asset and transaction finance. Prior to that Caroline worked at the Danish law firm Gorrissen Federspiel.
