Anders Wold

Senior Lawyer

Anders is specialised in construction law, focusing on construction projects, complex and long-term contractual relationships, and real estate. He advises municipalities, public housing associations, professional clients, contractors and consultants on all aspects of construction projects. This includes matters regarding construction contracts, design-build contracts, consultancy contracts, collaborative models and contracts, integrated project delivery, and AB 18/ABT 18/ABR 18, as well as dispute resolution and issues related to contractor insolvency and restructuring. In addition to his work within construction, he advises on real estate transactions.

Before joining Schjødt, Anders worked at a boutique law firm specialising in construction law since his graduation from the University of Copenhagen's Faculty of Law. He also holds a graduate diploma (HD2) in management and organisation from Copenhagen Business School.
