Henrik Juul Hansen

Partner

Henrik is one of the most experienced and active legal advisors in the Danish M&A market and is widely recognised for his ability to deliver results, even in the most complex transactions. He combines legal precision with a clear business focus and is known for his ability to cut through complex issues and find practical solutions that drive processes forward.

Henrik has spearheaded a wide range of the largest and most high-profile corporate transactions in Denmark in recent decades and has particular expertise in representing buyers in large and strategically important transactions. He also has considerable experience in organising and executing sales processes where his commercial acumen and pragmatic perspective ensure the best possible results.

In addition to transaction work, Henrik is a member of the boards of directors of several companies and acts as a strategic advisor to listed as well as unlisted companies. His advice therefore not only covers specific transactions, but also the long-term commercial and legal structures that shape companies' development.
