

siri.kolbjornsen@schjodt.com

+47 938 73 201

Bergen

Siri Nyhus Kolbjørnsen

Senior Lawyer

Siri is a senior lawyer who works with dispute resolution. She has litigation experience, and extensive experience from working in Norwegian courts. Siri specializes in civil law and has comprehensive experience with procedural law. In addition, she also has experience with criminal law and with administration of bankruptcy estates.

Prior to joining Schjødt in 2023, Siri worked seven years in Norwegian courts; first as a deputy judge in the District Court and then as a law clerk in the Appeal Court. During her time as a deputy judge, Siri administrated several large civil cases and numerous criminal cases. Earlier she worked as a lawyer specialized in dispute resolution and bankruptcy proceedings in another law firm in Bergen. Siri holds a Master of Laws degree from the University of Bergen.

Practice Areas

Dispute Resolution, Litigation & Arbitration

Restructuring & Insolvency

Education

2018

Bachelor's degree International Studies, University of Oslo

2013

Master of Laws, University of Bergen